

Savvy by Ingrid Law

Mississippi Beaumont, or Mibs for short, is about to turn thirteen. As if the idea of becoming a teenager weren't scary enough, thirteen is the age when a Beaumont's "savvy", a sort of supernatural power, shows up. One of Mib's brothers can cause hurricanes and another creates electricity... who knows what Mib's special power will be! Unfortunately, her excitement is quieted by the news of her Poppa being hurt in a terrible accident. Now, all Mibs wants is a savvy that will save her Poppa. She is so sure that she'll be able to help her Poppa that she sneaks onto a traveling Bible salesman's rickety bus, with her siblings and the preacher kids in tow. But when the bus starts heading the wrong direction, only one thing is for sure: after this thrilling adventure, no one will ever be the same. Find out what Mib's real savvy is and what happens during her journey in the fantasy tale Savvy by Ingrid Law.
